

Cardiff School of Optometry & Vision Sciences

Maindy Road, Cathays, Cardiff , CF24 4HQ

There is no general parking available on site. Limited disabled parking is available. Blue Badge holders should contact Su Jenkins to request a space.

Email: JenkinsS33@cardiff.ac.uk, Tel: 029 20 876784

Inherited Eye Disease Patient Day

Wednesday 13th March 2019

14:00—18:00

Cardiff School of Optometry & Vision Sciences

Main Lecture Theatre

Organised by Prof Marcela Votruba,
Hon. Consultant Ophthalmologist in collaboration with Genetic Alliance UK & the Wales Gene Park

Please register your attendance via Eventbrite;

www.inheritedeyediseasepatientday.eventbrite.co.uk

or email Su Jenkins to confirm attendance at this event:
JenkinsS33@cardiff.ac.uk or complete the form below and post to the address below:

I would like to attend the Inherited Eye Disease Patient Event on Wednesday 13th March 2018

Name:

Address:

.....

Email:

Tel:

My condition is (optional) :

Dietary requirements:

Name of accompanying person:

Should more places become available would you like us to contact you to offer you an extra place? YES / NO (Please delete as appropriate)

Please return this form to :

Su Jenkins, School of Optometry & Vision Sciences, Cardiff University,
Maindy Road, Cathays, Cardiff. CF24 4HQ

Inherited Eye Disease Patient Day

Wednesday 13th March 2019

Provisional Programme

14.00- 14.15 Registration

14.15 - 14.20 Welcome by Chair ~ Marcela Votruba

14.20 - 14.30 Marcela Votruba
'Ophthalmic Genetics in Wales'

14.30 - 14.45 National Priority Setting Partnership;
Patients and Professionals ~ rare
Mitochondrial disease

14.45 - 15.15 Refreshments/ Stands / Networking

15.15 - 15.35 Retinitis Pigmentosa— new treatment hopes

15.35– 15.50 Iris Egner "Update on the Welsh 100k
Genome results"

15.50 - 16.15 Patient Panel: Question & Answer
'Living with Inherited Eye Disease;
Patients stories'

16:15 - 16:35 Emma Hughes—Genetic Alliance;
working for you in Wales

17.45—18.00 Conclusion & Wrap Up
Marcela Votruba